CherrySeal

Bag sealing

The CherrySeal is an ultra-compact sealing machine with an excellent sealing quality. Equipped with a BI-active seal, it ensures both sides of the sealing bar are heated, achieving a rapid and even heat transfer. The CherrySeal is designed to handle various bag and box sizes effortlessly, adapting to different formats with precision. From stretch to gusseted seals, this machine can handle it all. And as the cherry on top, the CherrySeal effectively removes excess air while sealing, ensuring the best protection for your products. Meet powerful performance with versatility!
